THE MAIL PILOT.

The mail 'plane in charge of Lt. Milton Mouse arrives safely at Aesop's Junction two minutes late due to buzzard interference and a stop-over for mail.

Two bad men plan a mail hold-up and after the 'plane is loaded with valuable mail one bandit clings to the wheels as it takes-off. In the air, the mean egg crawls up and has a fight with Milt. Just as Milt knocks him off the wing, the other desperato appears on an aerial bicycle. The battle is going strong between these two when a pelican flies up behind Milton. The pelican's mouth opens and there is Rita, Milt's best girl, who with a well directed shot gets rid of the bandit.

The pelican flies to the mail-plane and lets Rita join her hero.

AESOP SAYS:

"GIRLS MAY CATCH MEN WITH FACE POWDER, BUT IT TAKES BAKING POWDER TO HOLD 'EM."
